New Course Objectives:
Textbook change

New Course Description:

Justification for Revising the Course:

The old textbook was out of print. This particular book is adopted because, it is easy to read and it accommodates both the majors and non-majors; since this course is designed for that purpose. The book is clearly divided into 4 sections. The first two sections are covered in this course designed to introduce the students into the study of the marine environment.

Old textbook: Garrison, T. Oceanography: An Invitation to Marine Science. Wadsworth

New text: Castro, Peter and Huber, Michael. 2005. Marine Biology. 6th ed. NY: McGraw Hill Higher Education. ISBN: 0-73215775
